

Sunday Night
7 o'clock
Oct. 19, 1969

Dear Jimmy,

Thanks for calling Sat. Night. Always it is so nice talking to you. I had a good dinner for Moshe, a chicken casserole recipe Mary had given me. We lost a dollar to Ruth and Milt.

We went to Emanuel today and stopped at the hospital to see Uncle Jim. He is much better, thank goodness. We then went up to the cabin. Jeanie and Art and their baby were there, Cully and Gillian and Gail and Guff, and of course Ruthie and Jack and Scott and Leslie.

Dad got back from Los Vegas Friday Night. Ray went with him and Ray lost his brief case with 180 dollars in chips that Phil had given him to cash in. He left his brief case on the sidewalk while waiting for the cab from the airport

Aunt Stella will be getting back from Reno this afternoon. She was hoping to win slot of money so she could give it to Uncle Jim to help toward his hospital expenses.

Tuesday I am going to play bridge and Thursday I am going to see Audrey and Tyne. I should stay home all of the time and just study Swedish.

Anytime you feel like bringing some one home with you its fine with me.

Love,
Mom.